Non-KCBS Backyard Contest FAQs

How can I sanction my Backyard event with the Alabama BBQ Association (ABA)? In order to be sanctioned by the ABA, non-KCBS Backyard contest organizers must follow these basic guidelines:

1. Choose a date that doesn't conflict with another Backyard event that is within 100 miles.
2. Have a minimum of 10 teams participating.
3. Fill out an ABA Backyard Division Festival Sanctioning Request Application, then send in the completed application and pay the sanctioning fee to the ABA secretary at least 30 days prior to the event.
4. Provide the ABA with an approximate number of teams competing.
5. Provide the ABA with the meat categories for the contest, i.e., Chicken, Ribs, or Pork.
6. Submit scores to the Vice President of the Backyard Division via e-mail no later than Monday following the event.

How will the ABA help me promote my Backyard event? Sanctioned Backyard contests will be posted to the ABA website within one week of receipt of the application and contest conflict verification. To assist the ABA with promoting your event, contest organizers need to electronically submit the following documents to the ABA secretary:

1. Contest application and/or link to on-line registration
2. Contest Rules and Regulations
3. Logo for your event (optional)
4. Provide information about the following:
 - To whom teams are to make checks payable
 - The address for mailing in a team's registration
 - The street address for the BBQ event

How can I dual sanction my KCBS Backyard event with the Alabama BBQ Association (ABA)? In order to be dual sanctioned with the ABA, Backyard contest organizers must follow these basic guidelines:

1. Have chosen a date that doesn't conflict with another Backyard event within 100 miles.
2. Have a minimum of 10 teams participating.
3. Fill out an ABA Backyard Division Festival Sanctioning Request Application, then send in the completed application and pay the sanctioning fee to the ABA secretary at least 30 days prior to the event.
4. Provide the ABA with an approximate number of teams competing.
5. Provide the ABA with the meat categories for the contest, i.e., Chicken, Ribs, or Pork.
6. If a Backyard event has at least 3 meat categories, they must submit a copy of the overall scores to the Vice President of the Backyard Division via e-mail no later than Monday following the event.

How will the ABA help me promote my Backyard event? Sanctioned Backyard contests will also be posted to the ABA website within one week of receipt of the application and contest conflict verification. To assist the ABA with promoting your event, contest organizers need to electronically submit the following documents to the ABA secretary:

1. Contest application and/or link to on-line registration
